

Technical Issue with Refund Checks

A technical issue with some New Jersey Gross Income Tax refund checks dated Feb. 25, 2013 and drawn on a Wells Fargo account may have resulted in checks being dishonored when presented at Wells Fargo branches for payment. The issue has now been resolved and anyone who was unable to cash or deposit their refund check should redeposit their check or present it again for payment on Friday, March 1, or at a later date. If you experience further problems with your refund check, please contact the New Jersey Division of Taxation's Call Center at 609-292-6400 or assistance.

Posted: Feb. 28, 2013